

DEFINING YOUR LEADERSHIP PRESENCE MASTERCLASS 2022

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

'Improve your professional conversations by developing your non-verbal intelligence'

QELi in partnership with Matt Waldron are pleased to offer the Defining Your Leadership Presence masterclass. Understanding body language is a personal and professional skill that can be learnt and mastered with practice. The great news is, it is like learning how to drive a car, we can all learn the mechanics of using nonverbal communication effectively so that it will eventually become automatic. This then allows us to focus our full attention on being an effective person in how we show up in the world around us.
