

LearnTech Lab

Leading the Futures of Education

Futures-proofing your leadership: what will the education landscape look like in 2030?

Program Overview

Leading the Futures of Education is designed to introduce leaders to a range of Futures Thinking frameworks. The masterclass will provide you with a range of tools to enable you to make sense of the emerging future at a global level and to identify actions you can take at a local level to influence a preferred future.

A highly interactive one-day workshop, the masterclass draws on the latest evidence based Futures Thinking frameworks and a range of approaches and tools that can be applied in the school setting.

Program Objectives

Leading the Futures of Education will explore:

- ▶ An introduction to Futures Thinking Frameworks
- ▶ Reading the signals: approaches to raising awareness of what's emerging
- ▶ Education in 2030: using scenarios to help prepare for the emerging future
- ▶ Future tools: mapping and influencing the preferred future

Who Should Attend?

The masterclass is suitable for system and school leadership teams.

About Nick Burnett

Nick Burnett is an education and learning entrepreneur and futurist. He has a particular interest and expertise in the areas of exponential technologies and their relevance/ impact in education and learning. He also has interest and expertise in next level conversations, coaching, leadership, special education and behaviour support.

Nick has been a teacher, senior leader and school principal, and, since 2004, coach, trainer and consultant primarily to those in education, but also to others in the not-for-profit sector. Throughout his time in education, spanning 30 years, Nick has been committed to developing individuals at all levels, including students, and has a strong belief that everyone can develop, improve and achieve.

Program Structure

Phase 1	Phase 2
Program preparation	One-day workshop
▶ Pre-readings

To register an expression of interest, visit:
qeli.qld.edu.au/leading-the-futures-of-education

About QELi

QELi is an innovative not-for-profit institute committed to delivering excellence in leadership by supporting education leaders from government and non-government sectors, across Australia and internationally, to establish a strong vision, improve student outcomes and lead change in their school context and wider school communities. We support educators at every level – from teachers to principals and system leaders – and corporate services and school support staff to develop leadership capabilities, maximise their potential and reach their leadership goals.

www.qeli.qld.edu.au

+61 7 3007 5222

info@qeli.qld.edu.au

